

Doltone comes to you, introducing Catering by Doltone.

Leading venue and catering collection, Doltone House today launch their newest brand, Catering by Doltone.

Whilst providing offsite catering is not new to Doltone House, following a very successful two-year tenure at the Australian Technology Park in Eveleigh Sydney, they have identified a demand from their clients to further expand this service.

Known for exceptional catering standards and having won several catering industry awards, Doltone House is taking a proactive approach in offering catering to other premises, venues and unique locations around Sydney.

Doltone House has catered for many offsite events over the years including at the Overseas Passenger Terminal, Sydney Opera House Fleet Steps, Great Hall at Sydney University and 2,500 seated guests and 4,000 people events at Australian Technology Park, as well as for many private residences in and around the Greater Sydney area.

With a passionate team of chefs renowned for their abundant, flavourful dishes have been busy creating menus for the offsite catering market.

Elio Benedetti, Executive Chef said: "The team are very excited for this next venture and we are really looking forward to serving our food in all the quirky and wonderful venues around Sydney.

"We love the challenge that comes with offsite catering and coming up with menu ideas to answer the client brief whether it be that an exclusive event, high-end gala, an intimate dinner or the large numbers where the menu needs to be suitable for a wide variety of palates."

Paul Signorelli, Executive Chairman of Doltone House said: "We are thrilled by the opportunity to deliver Catering by Doltone outside of our core Doltone venues.

"We have catered for so many of our clients over the years who have asked us to, however it is now time to offer this service to others; our food, after all is what we are known for."

Doltone House is an award-winning venue and catering collection offering six unique venue locations and 30 unique spaces including two waterfront venues on Sydney Harbour with the newest addition coming to Western Sydney in 2020. It is coupled with the flexibility to host all event types up to 1,200 guests.

Doltone House has been inducted into Meetings & Events Australia's Hall of Fame, amongst the long list of prestigious accolades attributing to their continuing success.
