Applause

What our students, teachers and parents say!

---

"Every year the staff at Doltone House go above and beyond to make our event a huge success. Even this year with additional restrictions, the service we received both before the event and during was amazing. During the planning stage, numerous queries in relation to restrictions were answered to ensure we were fully informed. On the evening the staff were amazing. Thank you again - see you next year."

ST ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL SCHOOL

"The level of service is exceptional. Our event manager was amazing, patient and flexible- every problem had a solution. I would recommend your company purely on her attention to detail... but then to add to this excellent was your team on the night. Beyond amazing! They had to deal with angry parents and did so gracefully. Thank you for everything."

ST CLARE'S COLLEGE

"Last night we hosted our Year 12 Graduation Dinner at Doltone House Jones Bay, I wanted to share with you, our appreciation for yet another exceptional Doltone House experience. Your staff are unparalleled in the service industry- nothing is too much trouble and all requests, changes and amendments are met grace. We are so happy to be back running events- and especially pleased to work with you again."

Special Meal Requests

The CSIRO have found that "one-in-three Australians avoid gluten, dairy, or meat", and this number is projected to increase further year-by-year. Understanding this trend, as well as the expectation of event delegates to receive a 'personalised experience' especially regarding what they eat and drink, places more pressure on event organisers to customise event catering.

- Lead Executive Chef Elio Benedetti

Doltone House prepares customised meals for attendees with dietary requirements. We work with our clients throughout the lead-up and during the event to clarify any questions about special dietary catering. Understanding and accommodating dietary requirements is an unavoidable part of modern event planning, so be confident that with Doltone House you're in the best hands to assist with all requests.

"Thank you so much @doltonehouse for looking after me at the event last week for our office Christmas Party! Time and effort was put into ensuring my meals were right for me and I feel that the Chef must have known that no onion and garlic was code for low fodmap, because my food was just that and there was no need for my bloat friendly outfit. Amazing! Me and my happy tum had a great night."

---

"Many people commented on how good the food was - one chap, who was a vegan, was in raptures about the Chocolate Mousse."

I know many chefs are not keen on giving out kitchen secrets but is the recipe for the vegan Chocolate Mousse available for our guest? He just wants to make it for himself - not sell it over the internet!!"

Both glasses are partially filled and have a classic shape with a long stem. Overlaid on the center of the image, between the two glasses, is the text "Toast Dolton" in a gold, cursive script font.
