

DOLTONE HOUSE ADDS A SYDNEY CBD VENUE TO COLLECTION

Renowned NSW venue and catering collection, Doltone House announce the latest edition to their venue portfolio, Doltone House | Hyde Park.

Following their continued success and reputation as Sydney's leading venue and hospitality group, Doltone House will now also be housed in Elizabeth Street Sydney, directly opposite the iconic Hyde Park with the new addition officially named Doltone House | Hyde Park.

Housed in the Tattersalls Club Sydney, one of Sydney's oldest and iconic clubs established in 1858. Tattersalls Club Sydney is the fulcrum of Sydney's corporate heart and plays a leading role in the city's business, sporting, cultural and culinary life. Doltone House | Hyde Park will commence operation as of March 2013, following a complete interior design refurbishment to compliment the Doltone House venue signature. Doltone House are currently reviewing high profile design concepts. This will include a foyer with sweeping staircase and heritage features, a grand ballroom, a conference and business centre with health and recreational facilities on site and a total capacity of 800 guests.

The venue itself boasts 5metre high ceilings with an abundance of natural light via floor to ceiling spectacular windows and uninterrupted views of Sydney's Hyde Park, directly adjacent to the 5 star Sheraton on The Park Hotel. It is superbly located within a prestigious sector of Sydney's precinct and exclusive retail outlets.

Fittingly, 19th September is the day Australia celebrates National Family Business Day – a day designed to recognise the invaluable contribution family businesses make to the economic, cultural and social fabric of Australia.

“With family businesses accounting for around 70 per cent of all businesses in Australia and employing 50 per cent of the Australian work force, I am so pleased that our business growth plans are part of such a significant contribution to our economy. I am thrilled by our recent venue addition”, said Paul Signorelli, Managing Director/Owner of Doltone House venue and catering collection.

After taking home two National Meetings and Events Australia industry awards in April 2012, Doltone House has definitely marked the achievement of their growth and expansion plans to grow the venue portfolio with two more additions by 2014.

Doltone House is renowned in Sydney for providing multi award-winning, iconic venues for conferences and events. The Doltone property portfolio, which includes the iconic flagship properties; Sylvania Waters, Jones Bay Wharf, Darling Island Wharf and now Hyde Park – has seen Doltone House establish a reputation as one of Australia's premier industry players.

Media Enquiries, please contact marketing@doltonehouse.com.au

Event Enquiries, please contact info@doltonehouse.com.au ph 8571 0622

19 September 2012

meetings | conferences | events | weddings | catering | food & wine emporium | casual dining